Job Cards: Asking for a Raise by Email

Cut into six cards. Each student draws one card and uses the information in the three columns.

Card 1 Cashier

Reason (cause)
I now train new employees.

Company situation (contrast)
The store had a slow season.

What I can offer (condition)
I can work extra weekend shifts.

Card 2 Receptionist

Reason (cause)
I now manage the schedule and answer more calls.

Company situation (contrast)
The clinic budget is tight.

What I can offer (condition)
I can learn the new billing system.

Card 3 Delivery driver

Reason (cause)
My routes have doubled.

Company situation (contrast)
Fuel costs have gone up.

What I can offer (condition)
I can cover busy days.

Card 4 Cook

Reason (cause)
I now lead the kitchen team on weekends.

Company situation (contrast)
Sales were low last month.

What I can offer (condition)
I can train new staff.

Card 5 Office assistant

Reason (cause)
I now write customer emails and weekly reports.

Company situation (contrast)
The company gave no raises this year.

What I can offer (condition)
I can take a customer service course.

Card 6 Warehouse worker

Reason (cause)
I learned to use the new machines.

Company situation (contrast)
The warehouse is short of staff.

What I can offer (condition)
I can become the safety trainer.

Wemimo Aluko | Free to use in your classroom. Please credit the author.

Student Worksheet: Email Planning Sheet

Asking for a Raise by Email

Name: _____ Job card: _____

Step 1. Plan your ideas

Part	Sentence frame	Your sentence
Reason (cause)	I would like to discuss a raise because _____.
Contrast	Although / Even though / While _____, _____.
Condition	I can _____ unless / even if / whether or not _____

Step 2. Write your email.

To: _____

Subject: _____

Dear Mr. / Ms. _____,

I am writing to ask if we can discuss _____.

_____

_____

_____

_____

Thank you for considering my request.

Sincerely,

_____

Polite phrases: I would like to… / I would appreciate… / I am happy to… / Thank you for your time.

Word bank

Cause	Contrast	Condition
because	although, even though, while	unless, even if, whether or not