Debate Cards: Articles

Cut out the cards. Learners draw cards from each set and use the words in the debate.

How to use

- Abstract nouns and general categories: use no article.
- Specific reference cards: use the.
- Aim for 5 correct examples of each during the debate.
- Debate questions: Should education be free for everyone? Does money bring happiness? Do students learn better with technology?

Set 1: Abstract nouns (no article)

justice	poverty	love
happiness	education	freedom
technology

Set 2: General categories (no article)

teachers	students	politicians
cars	animals	parents
books

Set 3: Specific references (use the)

the decision yesterday	the car I bought last week	the students in this class
the report we read last night	the teacher who helped me	the money I lost this morning
the meeting at 10 a.m.		